DEATHS.

McCLURE.

—Mrs. Nancy McClure, aged seventy-five, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. W. Napier, near Tarr Station, in this county, Monday, after a brief illness of pneumonia. The body was taken to her old home at Crab Orchard, where the funeral and burial took place Wednesday. Mrs. McClure was the widow of Henley McClure. She is survived by five children, two of whom, Mrs. Thomas W. Napier and Miss Anna Napier, are residents of this county, and a grandson, Lewis Mitchell, of Mt. Sterling, formerly of Paris.

DELANEY.

—The funeral of Mrs. Mary Delaney, aged seventy-nine, who died Monday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thos. Bristow, near Spears Mill, after a short illness, was held at the Church of the Annunciation, in this city, Wednesday morning at nine o'clock, services conducted by Rev. Father Anastasius Swengler. Funeral was followed by burial in the Paris Catholic Cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Dan Jordan, John Brophy, George Toohey, Bishop Delaney, Jas. Delaney and Wm. Bristow.

Mrs. Delaney was Miss Conyers, of Nicholas county, and widow of Jas. Delaney, Sr., of Bourbon county, who died about ten years ago. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. Jennie Rafferty, of Nicholas county; Mrs. Mary Shine, of Cynthiana; Mrs. Lucy McCarthy, of Chicago; Mrs. Thomas Bristow, of Bourbon county; Robert L. Delaney, of Fleming county; Joseph Delaney, of Dayton, O.; Charles Delaney, of Mt. Sterling, and James E. Delaney, of Paris.

DAUGHERTY.

—Mrs. Charles A. Daugherty, aged seventy, died at her home on Mt. Airy avenue at 2:30 o'clock yesterday morning, after a short illness due to a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Daugherty was the widow of Mr. C. A. Daugherty, for many years one of the best-known business men of Paris, where he conducted the business to which his sons succeeded at his death. She was a great-granddaughter of Gov. James Garrard, in his time one of Kentucky's most noted figures, and whose home was near Paris, for many years occupied by his descendants, William Garrard Talbott and Thomas Hart Talbott. She was a devoted member of the Christian church, and was prominent in all the good works of that church.

Mrs. Daugherty is survived by the following children: Dr. Charles

G. Daugherty, James Daugherty and Miss Anna Daugherty, of Paris; Frank Daugherty, of Jenkinstown, Pa.; Mrs. J. T. Hazelrigg, of Shelbyville.

The funeral will be held at the family residence at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon, with services conducted by Rev. W. E. Ellis, her pastor. The burial will follow on the family lot in the Paris Cemetery. The pall-bearers will be: A. T. Rice, Dr. J. A. Orr, Dr. J. A. Wilson, Walter Clark, Wm. Lyle and Wm. G. Talbott.
